Progress of the Canton Murder Trial—The Oage Pit.

The Nub of the News as Given Us by the Telegraph.

It Is a Murder.

CANTON, O., Dec. 15.—The testimony taken in the case of Simon Kline shows beyond a doubt that a terrible crime has been committed by the son of the deceased, who is now in jail, as the guilty party. The following facts are brought out in the evidence: That the accused, early last week, made two attempts to poison both his father and the housekeeper, Mrs. Boyle, with arsenic, administered in coffee—the dose being too large, acted as an emetic. Failing in this attempt, he purchased morphine, and with that succeeded in ending his father's life; that deceased died of poison, after several days of violent illness; that the prisoner used threatening language against his father, and made indecent proposals to the housekeeper, Mrs. Boyle. The testimony already given is regarded as overwhelming proof of the prisoner's guilt, and it is expected a verdict will be rendered accordingly to-morrow. It has caused intense excitement and indignation. The deceased was highly respected, and his diabolical murder has greatly excited the community.

Railroad Negotiations.

ST. LOUIS, December 15.—Thos. Allen still asserts that his negotiations with the Jay Gould clique are closed, and that the sale of his interest in the Iron Mountain railroad is not yet consummated. It is generally believed, however, that a transfer of the stock will be made within one or two days, and that the purchase will amount to $2,000,000. Mr. Allen does not deny this. The merchants generally consider the acquisition of the road by Gould as a good thing for St. Louis but some of our cotton men are apprehensive that it will result in an advance in the rate in cotton from Texas to the detriment of this market.

Will Be Pushed Forward.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 15.—The syndicate lately formed by the Boston and New York capitalists for the building of the Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis railroad, which is an extension of the Toledo, Delphos and Burlington road from Kokomo to St. Louis, has met with such success in securing subscriptions that contracts are being let for the entire line. The officers of the road having perfected favorable arrangements for terminal facilities in St. Louis, state they expect to have it in operation by October, 1881.

Newspaper Purchase.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 15.—A number of prominent republicans have completed the purchase of the Daily News, a democratic paper of this city, and will convert it into a republican paper, under the direction of Horace Rublee, ex-minister to Switzerland, and a well-known journalist of this city. The first appearance of the new paper will be on the 1st of January.

Terrible Burning.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—A News special from Independence, Mo., last night says Mrs. James Jones, wife of a wealthy farmer, attempted to fill a lighted lamp with kerosene when both lamp and can exploded, causing the almost instant death of her two children, aged respectively six years and six months. Mrs. Jones was burned so terribly that she died in a few hours.

Accidentally Shot.

OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 15.—Last night Miss Elizabeth Tyler, aged 18, was shot dead at the gate of her residence by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of her affianced, John Scott, a well-known commercial merchant.

He has made application to the war department to be placed on the retired list, General Marcy will return from New Mexico about December 24, and it is said by war department officials he will probably be placed on the retired list January 2.

The senate committee on military affairs have agreed to recommend the confirmation of all army nominations thus far received the present session. They include the appointments of Colonel Hazen, to be chief signal officer, and Colonel Miles, to be brigadier general.

The chairman of the senate finance committee, has appointed Messrs. Beck, Kernan and Morrill as a subcommittee to consider and report upon Senator Beck's bill, introduced at the last session of congress, which provides for the free purchase and registry of foreign-built ships for use by American citizens in foreign trade.

The president also nominated Eugene Schuyler, New York, to be charge d'affaires and consul general at Bucharest, W. F. Hodder, Pennsylvania, secretary to the French claims commission. United States consuls: John Parkhill, New York, consul at Bristol; David A. McNinley, California, consul at Honolulu; Theo. Canisius, Illinois, consul at Galvestone.

The Oage Pit.

HALIFAX, Dec. 15.—Deputy Manager Douglas went down the hoisting shaft of Cope pit early this forenoon to see how the ventilation had been progressing, and on reaching the bottom of the shaft he observed indications of fire, and on proceeding a little further he saw flames. He immediately returned to the surface. Shortly afterwards, about 7:30, a slight explosion occurred, followed at intervals of fifteen minutes by two other blasts. There was very little noise, but large quantities of smoke poured forth from several different openings at the same time. No damage was done to the surface work, nor was any one injured by the explosion. Gloom rests upon Stellarton. Hopes were entertained that Cope pit might be opened and a large number of men given employment, but the explosion of this morning destroyed the last hope. Gangs of men are filling up all the openings so as to exclude air from the mine, and thus try to extinguish the fire.

The Oklahoma Colonists.

CALDWELL, Kas. December 15.—Doctor Wilson this morning started for Washington, hoping to accomplish something to relieve the situation on the border. The settlers broke camp early on Shoofly creek to move to Caldwell. The soldiers broke camp and moved along with the settlers. Major Randall, commanding at Fort Reno, arrived just at daylight, and announced that reinforcements were hurrying up from the fort. This did not in the least disturb the settlers. Five wagons and twenty men joined the colonists here. The mayor and a long procession of citizens of Caldwell, headed by a brass band, came out to meet the colonists. They were escorted through the principal streets, the ladies waving their handkerchiefs and men cheering. Judge Lauch, the attorney of the colonists, came down from Wichita, and is in consultation with the leader to-night, and it is hoped there will be no trouble.

Prospects Withered.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—Harry Thompson, a young farmer of West Cleveland, was killed this morning by an accidental discharge of a gun, while hunting. He was to have been married this evening.

Dead Broke.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—The great army of department clerks here are now all bankrupt and out of money. This is the way it came about: Just before the presidential election each and every clerk in the several departments was assessed 2 per cent. of his salary by the republican congressional committee, for the purpose of securing funds to carry the doubtful congressional districts. This, however, was the third similar assessment of the campaign that they had to stand. To meet this demand upon the purses of the poor clerks, Sherman issued orders that they should be paid one month's salary in advance—that is they should be paid for the months of October and November at the same time—which was the last of October, and then, they should be sent home to vote. This was done, and when they got back to Washington every mother's son of them was busted faster than a Sunday-school savings bank, and no money to be reached or salary before the last of December—on account of having received November's pay in advance—and as a result no department clerk has a cent of money and no credit.

An Incendiary's Work.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 15.—A painting attempt was made last night to burn Sly & Forman's nickel plating works. Nineteen pails, pans, cans and crocks, filled with benzine and coal oil, were distributed in all the rooms of the building and connected by string and wire with a cord leading to the basement. The fire was started, and a cord pulled, but some vessels failed to upset. The flames were discovered at 21 o'clock this morning and extinguished after a stubborn conflict. The loss is estimated at $2,000 to $3,000; insured for $9,000. Some discharged employees are suspected.

A Big Gas Transaction.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 15.—The reports circulated here that the Lucedale gas works had been sold to the St. Louis Gas company are proved unfounded but the facts in the case is that Fred. Crowell, T. H. Porter and Mr. Alling, have sold to Erasmus Wells, John H. Maxon and John J. Mitchell, of this city, a controlling interest in the works. The amount for this interest was not transpired, but the capital stock of the company is $1,200,000, which indicates that the transaction is one of great magnitude.

The Cotton Crops.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The department of agriculture says of the condition of cotton that there is a decline in the return of December 1, compared with that received November 1. The continuance of rain and very cold weather in November lowered the estimates of the states bordering on the Mississippi river.

Of course the friends of the gentlemen rejoice in the good luck which has thus fallen on them and hope it may prove true.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16.
FROM NEWBORN TO MILLIONAIRE.

An Old Forty-niner Turns up in the Metropolis in Quest of a Remuneration.
Charlie Benham's Maud B. dashed up Seventh avenue yesterday afternoon driven by a tall, broad-shouldered man in a white overcoat and wide brimmed black hat. His face bears a remarkable resemblance to that of Washington, notwithstanding a short-cropped, iron-gray mustache. His hair is a snow white, threaded with black, but he is only fifty-eight years old. He pulled up at John Barry's McComb's Dam hotel and strode into a room crowded with men who love the road.

"Hullo! if there isn't Tom Maguire!" shouted somebody, and in an instant the tall stranger was dividing his attention among a dozen hands that were outstretched to greet him.

"Well, well," said Colonel Mooney, "this reminds me of the time when Hiram Woodruff returned from Boston in 1846, and speeded up Third avenue behind Sarah Winch and Gray Eagle to a sleigh to call on the boys at Bill Sparks' and the Hazzard house and his brother Ike's. How have you been doing all these years?"

Refreshments were had, and the widely-known California theatrical manager was congratulated again and again on his good looks.

"Hullo!" he broke out, spotting a modest little gray-haired gentleman, and pulling him into the circle with a vigorous grasp of the hand, "here's my old boss. You used to pull my ears, but you can't do it now."

"What have you been doing since you left New York?" asked Edward Kearney.

"I've been making and losing fortunes. I left for California in 1849, and since that time I've lost from $700,000 to $800,000 by fires alone. But I never got discouraged. I always made it my motto to rub out the past and to live up to the age by looking into the future."

"And how long are you going to stay in the east?"

"That," said Mr. Maguire, "all depends on circumstances. I came here on business. If I see any money in it, perhaps I shall engage a star actor or actress. And another thing, I like a fast horse. I've owned any number of them. If I can only have the luck to come across a Rarus, a St. Julian, or a Maud S, I'll carry him home. If the owner can show me fast enough time, he can set the figure."

More refreshments were had at this time, because, as Mr. Maguire said, the afternoon was short. Then he told of the time when he used to sell newspapers in the streets of New York.

"Yes, and I remember the time," said the little old gentleman, "when you lost $4, all you'd made in a week, on a bet, and wanted to borrow a dollar of me. I told you I wouldn't lend you money for you to bet away, and you straightened up, and says you, 'I'll have more money than you, old man, some day,' and I went down in my pocket and got you the dollar."

Kearney, said Maguire, I'm going back to the city, and I think Maud B. can show Planter the way."

The challenge was accepted, and after some more refreshments all around, taken because a change in the weather seemed imminent, the two horses were pulled out into the road for a fair start. The race down the avenue was exciting to the roadmen, who could keep in sight of Mr. Maguire's white coat. Each horse showed fine bursts of speed in turn, but at Central Park gate it was agreed that honors should be called even.

The first "San Francisco Theatre" was put up by Mr. Thomas Maguire. He returned to New York, not long after he first went to California in 1849, to purchase the necessary canvas and tent poles for the purpose. He is now an extensive theatrical proprietor and capitalist in San Francisco.

New York Appointment.
NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Ex-Congressman John D. Lawson, appointed last week president of the tax commission, having declined the position, Mayor Cooper today sent to the board of aldermen the name of Henry E. Howland. Wayne papers combined.

The Daily Sentinel

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14.

FORT WAYNE

The Wabash road is all quiet and regular.

Call on Rabus, the boss merchant tailor, for fine dress suits.

"Cincho-Quinine" cures chills and fever.

Rabus makes the best fits and the finest suits at the lowest prices.

The "Unknown" company stopped at the Robinson house yesterday.

Rabus takes the lead on fine fits and nobby suits, 16 West Berry street.

Consumption or debility in its first stages promptly arrested by Malt Bitters.

Mike Creigh has been promoted to an engineership on the Pittsburg road.

A fat hog in the Pittsburg freight house, from appearances, was choked to death.

Trains are all about on time and passenger and freight traffic good on the Pittsburg.

William Margerum returned from Pennsylvania last evening with his wife and child.

E. T. Davis, of the Pittsburg freight office, is well pleased with his "sooner" dog, and his boy is happy.

Engine 109, which has been in the Pittsburg shops for the past thirty days came out and went west to day.

"Librettos" of the Pirates of Penzance now on sale at A. C. Katt & Co.'s Sentinel Book and News Depot.

County Treasurer Taylor returned from Indianapolis, where he has been making his final settlement with the State.

Rabus, the merchant tailor, begs leave to call the attention of the public to his removal. See large display "ad" elsewhere.

John Cody, the ice man, has already stored away 1,400 tons of ice in one house and has five more houses of equal capacity yet to fill.

Freight engine No. 111 came in this morning on the Pittsburg with her front end badly banged up. The section ahead backed into her at Forest.

Sound repose is so essential to good health that we feel surprised to know any one would risk loss or rest from a Cough Syrup would give refreshing slumber.

A dispatch from Cork to the London Times says, the trial of Messrs Healy and Walsh is expected to begin on Wednesday. Parnell is expected to arrive there Tuesday.

Rabus' fits have become famous.
Now that he has moved into his new quarters he is better prepared than ever to please and give satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call.

C. Parker, C. Stewart and Henry McClary, three plain, unvarnished drunk and disorderlies visited police court and were fined according to the condition in which they were found.

The item from the Indianapolis News of yesterday, which appeared in these columns, stating that Hon. Wm.
Fleming would be interested in the erection of a paper mill at Franklin is incorrect.

'Dolph Rossington, the genial, wholesome clerk of the Pittsburg freight office, is in charge of the institution during the absence of Kelly McCracken. A better choice could not have been made.

Some sneak thief entered the office of Mr. John Methley, the wood and coal man, and stole a fine overcoat this morning. Mr. Methley had just purchased the coat at the C. O. D. clothing store a few weeks ago.

D. B. Stope is making engineers on the Pittsburg road as fast as good material is presented to him to work on.
The boys appreciate this and it would be hard to find a better set of firemen than are now running on this road.

We wish to inform our customers and the public in general, that we will remove to our elegant new store room, No. 30 West Main street, on or about January 1, 1880. Respectfully, M. McCONNELL & Co.

Frank Langohr, a fourteen year old son of A. J. Langohr, the Broadway baker, fell from an ice wagon yesterday and broke his leg below the knee.
He is resting as easy as could be expected under the circumstances.

Lodge No. 25 F. and A. M. have elected the following officers to serve the ensuing year: A. H. Hamilton, W. M.; James E. Keegan, S. W.; David Hughes, J. W.; Geo. Wilson, Treas.; E. G. Pierce, Sec'y.; Aldrich, T. J. Rodabaugh, David Robinson, Trustees; Wm. Hutchinson, Sr. Den-con; Wm. Russell, Jr. Deacon; J.
Goldstone and Isaac Well, Stewards.

Mrs. Mary Wood died yesterday evening at 11 o'clock, of lung fever, at the residence of her son-in-law, Edgar Kemp, No. 50 Oak street. The lady was 80 years of age and has resided in this city nearly thirteen years. The funeral will take place from Mr. Kemp's residence Thursday afternoon at one o'clock.

Bob Fisher, of the firm of Bass & Co., is getting quite fleshy of late and has been mistaken for John Eckert several times by his most intimate friends. Yesterday Frank McKinney saw Bob's shadow and turned around to see, as he thought, Fatty Squires, of Toledo, but was astonished to see Bob Fisher's smiling countenance beaming upon him.

Messrs. T. J. Tolan & Son, architects of this city, who some time ago furnished a plan for a new jail at Anderson, which plan was accepted, have filed with the county commissioners the perfected drawings and specifications for the building. The design is for a two-story building, to include the sheriff's residence and twenty-four cells for prisoners. The cost of the structure is not to exceed $18,- 000. Work will be begun on it in April next, and it is to be completed within the year.

A clerk in a store, not a thousand miles from Berry street, was waiting on a lady customer, when, among other things she asked for a pair of shoes, and the obliging clerk showed her to that department and helped her to select a pair of the best, which she tried on and asked the clerk what he thought of the fit. "They fit nice, ma'am, just wait and you can see for yourself," and then the clerk carried a large looking glass over and held it so the lady could see her feet. The boys in the Fruit House didn't smile about that time, but they just roared.

The toy kings, James M. Kane & Bro., invite the inspection of the public to their stock of everything imaginable in their line. Not the smallest article, from a rattle-box to the magnificently mounted baby carriage, but can be found in endless variety in their tremendous stock. They are emphatically the leaders of the toy trade, not only in this city, but in the state. They, at all times, carry the largest stock their "spacious ware-rooms," so well known to every resident of this city, being filled from cellar to garret all the year round. The stock of hobby horses, wagons, drums, dolls, toy cradles, etc., is the largest we have ever seen under one roof, and will well repay a thorough inspection. The firm of Kane & Bro. want you to come and see them. They are offering bargains in holiday goods which no one should fail to secure, and, as their unprecedented low prices will remain but for a short time only; no one should miss the opportunity.

FORT WAYNE.

How It Looks in a Picture.

The readers of THE SENTINEL will remember the artist, Mr. Thomas Warner, who was here recently securing material for a bird's eye view of the city. The announcement is now made that the picture has been completed, and will be delivered to subscribers during the present week. We were shown a copy of the finished work by Mr. Wm. R. Patchen, the publisher's agent, to-day, and are free to acknowledge that it is certainly a fine piece of lithographic work, and a decided artistic success, both in point of accuracy and quality of work. It is certainly the best representation of our thriving city that has ever been published. Besides being the best possible reference for office or home use, to locate or point out each separate building in the city, it is a pleasing picture, worthy a place in every home. And, in after life, every separate item of this faithful representation of our associations of to-day, will bring to the memory through all time its own souvenir of the past. Its value will increase, as years roll by, and it will show us in future years what we were in 1880.
To send copies of this picture to our eastern and European friends will be the very best way we can bring our city into the notice of those looking westward with capital to invest.

AMUSEMENTS.

STAGE WHISPERING.

...The Troubadours were in Toledo last night.

...The "Pirates of Penzance" are in Indianapolis.

...A ripple of laughter was caused last evening at the Grand by the slow movement of the scenery when an impressive tableau was on the programme. The lady had a longer faint than she calculated on.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—For the lower lake region, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature, westerly winds, partly cloudy weather, with occasional rain or snow.

KILLED BY THE CAR.

Henry Gellner meets his death at the New Years of the Pittsburg Road.

Henry Gellner, who has been in the employ of the Pittsburg railroad for the past sixteen years as a car oilier and general repairer, was instantly killed at the new yards this morning by the engine of passenger train No. 8 going east, which struck in the right side as he was walking along the track to his work. Mr. Gellner had a bad rupture and the blow in the side caused the whole intestines to burst loose and caused his almost instant death, he only asking for a drink of water, which could not be procured before he breathed his last. He was thrown some eight or ten feet by the engine and his right leg and arm were broken by his fall on the frozen ground. Mr. Gellner was a member of Concordia Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and his remains will be interred by that order. At the inquest the coroner found in the inside pocket of his vest, which was pinned shut and protected with a leather cover, a roll of money enclosed in an oil cloth sack, the sum of $440 in greenbacks, and in one of his pantaloons pockets a purse was found which contained $100 in gold and $4.52 in change. The deceased boarded at Charles A. Huffman's, No.
189 Calhoun street, and leaves no near relatives in this city, but has a cousin living near New Haven. Peltier took charge of the body and will prepare it for the grave.

THE RAILROADS.

Local, General and Personal Notes.

CROSS TIES.

A. W. Lamport, formerly agent of the Lake Shore at Hillsdale, Michigan, has been appointed superintendent of the C. W. and M., with headquarters at Wabash.

The Lake Shore has a freight blockade, and freight agents along the Wabash line have received orders to receive no more merchandise for shipment by that route until further instructions are received.

The movement of cars on Indianapolis roads last week was 17,663 against 18,518 for the week preceding, being a net decrease of 561 cars. The number of loaded cars handled in the same time was, received, 8,206; forwarded, 8,009; total, 16,215, being a decrease of 352 cars.

The surveying party in the interest of the extension of the I. B. and W. have now passed through Henry county and entered Wayne county, where the road meets with the same favor and encouragement which the people gave it in New Castle. The distance from Indianapolis to New Castle by the survey, which is nearly an air line, is forty-five miles.

Paper company, this city, took his departure this morning for his home at freight, has opened an office at No. 93 Calhoun street, where he will attend to all who may call on him for the purpose of shipping freight. The office is connected with telephone, and all orders will be promptly filled.

Mr. Lynn has made many friends during his short sojourn among us, and our business men will find him accommodating and gentlemanly to deal with.

Philetus A. Swift, trustee of Milan township, died this morning. Mr.
Swift was in the city only a few days ago and the sudden news of his death is a terrible surprise to his many friends.

He Got a Job.

A smart looking, well dressed man was standing on the corner of the court house square this morning, picking his teeth with a boarding house toothpick, when a young man from the country stepped up and commenced looking around to see what he could see, when he was addressed by the nice looking young man, who said:

"Good morning, sir, are you acquainted in the city?"

"No, sir," replied the youth; "I am just in from the country, and am looking for a job."

"Well, that is lucky; I am looking for a man to work for me," replied the stick fellow, "and you are just such a man as I want. You see I own several trucks here and need a driver and was just wondering where I could find a man to suit me, and here you come up. Now, I will give you good wages and pay you every Saturday night if you will go to work for me."

The youth was, of course, delighted at this good streak of luck, and thanked the man for so good a place.
The man remarked that he was going to buy some feed and then they would go to the stable. After feeling in his pockets he said he was short just $10, and asked the youth for that amount until he could get home when he would pay over the amount. The young man only had $7 with him which he handed to his boss who told him to wait until he went into the court house and got the other $3. The young man is still waiting and looking for the gentleman who hired him, and mourns the loss of a job and $7 at the same time.

A Brave Woman.

ST. PAUL, Ind., Dec. 15.—This morning, while Mrs. McCain, residing near this place, was washing, and while the men folks were gathering corn in a field near the house, a tramp entered the house, and proceeded to help himself to clothing and money.
He had the clothing neatly tied up, and a pocket-book in his hand, when Mrs. McCain entered the room to ascertain the time of day; and discovered the tramp. She at once procured a stick of wood from the wood-box in the room, and "went for" Mr. Tramp.
She knocked him down and took the pocket-book from him. He then struck her several severe blows and made his escape, but left everything.
Mrs. McCain is quite sore, but not seriously hurt. The facts soon became known, and a number of people pursued the tramp, but without avail.

Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Life.

LAFAYETTE IND., Dec. 15.—The motion for a new trial in the murder case of the state against Isaac Norris and John Maher, with the accompanying thirty-six reasons why a new trial should be granted, was diagnosed by Judge Vinton in an elaborate decision.
He overruled the motion and sentenced the two young men to the penitentiary for life. Exception was taken by the counsel for the defense, who will appeal the case to the supreme court.

BRADFORD, Pa., Dec. 14.—Fire in O'con last night destroyed the Buffalo House, Exchange restaurant and three other buildings, besides the Merritt Block, occupied by several firms and six families. It is reported that one woman and two children were burned. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp in the Buffalo House. Loss, $15,000; insurance, $10,000.

It Never Rains but Pours.

So it would seem from what Mr.
James R. Young, of Owatonna, Minn., recently wrote us. Mr. Young says: My wife was afflicted with a very severe sore throat in July and three children similarly troubled. St. Jacobs Oil was used, and a complete cure was the result. Can recommend it to all afflicted.
